Test questions at the end of the presentation.

GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF PUBLIC SERVICE

DO

- Place loyalty to the Constitution, the laws, and ethical principles above private gain.
- Act impartially to all groups, persons, and organizations.
- Protect and conserve Federal property.
- Disclose waste, fraud, abuse, and corruption to appropriate authorities.
- Fulfill in good faith your obligations as a citizen, and pay your Federal, State, and local taxes.
- Comply with all laws providing equal opportunity to all persons, regardless of their race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, or handicap.

DON'T

- Use public office for private gain.
- Use nonpublic information to benefit yourself or anyone else.
- Solicit or accept gifts from persons or parties that do business or seek official action from DoD (unless permitted by an exception).
- Make unauthorized commitments or promises that bind the Government.
- Use Federal property for other than authorized activities.
- Take jobs or hold financial interests that conflict with your Government responsibilities.
- Take actions that give the appearance that they are illegal or unethical.

ETHICAL DECISION MAKING

Always ask yourself these questions when making a decision:

- Do the ethics rules permit me to take a proposed action?
 - May I proceed?
 - If yes, SHOULD I proceed? Just because a course of action is legal does not mean it is a good idea.
- What are the benefits to DoD if I take the proposed action and what are the RISKS of creating an appearance of unethical conduct?

POLITICAL ACTIVITIES

The Hatch Act was passed in 1939 to ensure that federal programs "are administered in a nonpartisan fashion, to protect federal employees from political coercion in the workplace, and to ensure that federal employees are advanced based on merit and not based on political affiliation."
(U.S. Office of Special Counsel)

§ 2635.201(b)(1) –

“Employees should consider declining otherwise permissible gifts if they believe that a reasonable person with knowledge of the relevant facts would question the employee’s integrity or impartiality as a result of accepting the gift.”

GIFTS – NEW PARADIGM

- It is important because of what it does:
 - It changes the default.
 - It shifts the employee’s focus from “how can I accept this,” to “should I accept this.”
 - It requires the employee to engage in ethical decision-making. Ethics questions occur everyday, whether a specific rule applies or not.
- Bottom Line: Ownership by the employee of his/her actions.

GIFTS FROM OUTSIDE SOURCES

General Rules (5 CFR 2635.202)

An employee may not, directly or indirectly:

- Solicit a gift from a prohibited source;
- Solicit a gift to be given because of the employee's official position;
- Accept a gift from a prohibited source; or

There are exceptions, of course!

GIFTS FROM OUTSIDE SOURCES

Prohibited Sources

Remember the 14 Principles!

5 CFR 2635.101(b)(4) – GIFTS:

An employee shall not . . . solicit or accept any gift or other item of monetary value from any person or entity seeking official action from, doing business with, or conducting activities regulated by the employee's agency, or whose interests may be substantially affected by the performance or nonperformance of the employee's duties.

GIFTS FROM OUTSIDE SOURCES

Contractor employees are ALWAYS prohibited sources!

General rule – no gifts solicited or accepted

GIFTS FROM OUTSIDE SOURCES

More on the $20/$50 Rule:

- You may accept gifts valued up to $20 in value on one occasion (but not cash). [5 CFR 2635.204(a)]
- Gifts accepted from one source (e.g., one company) may not exceed $50 in value in a calendar year.
- May not “buy down” gift to $20, e.g., pay $5 & accept a gift worth $25.
- The $20 limit is per occasion and per source (e.g., at a trade show you may accept gifts worth $20 or less from several different DoD contractors on the same day).
- Good practice – a system to track gift acceptance.

GIFTS FROM OUTSIDE SOURCES

More on Widely Attended Gatherings (WAGs):

- Generally, an employee may not accept a gift given by a prohibited source (e.g., a DoD contractor) or given because of the employee's official position.
- A common exception to this general prohibition is the widely-attended gathering (WAG) exception. Advance supervisory written approval required.

GIFTS FROM OUTSIDE SOURCES

More on Widely Attended Gatherings (WAGs):

The “Agency Designee” (generally supervisor) must determine, in writing, that:

1. A large number of attendees will be present.
2. Diverse views will be represented.
3. There will be an opportunity to exchange views.
4. There is an agency interest in the subordinate’s attendance.
5. The agency’s interest in the employee’s attendance outweighs the concern that the employee may appear to be improperly influenced in the performance of official duties.

NOTE: If Approved, MUST attend in personal capacity (leave/liberty) and may NOT use Government transportation.

GIFTS BETWEEN EMPLOYEES

General Rule: Employees shall not:

- 1. Give or donate toward a gift for a superior or ask another employee to donate towards a gift to either his own superior or that of another; or

MISUSE OF POSITION: ENDORSEMENTS

- “Endorsement of a non-Federal entity, event, product, service, or enterprise may be neither stated nor implied by DoD or DoD employees in their official capacities...” [DoD 5500.07-R, para. 3-209]
- Example: No wearing uniform while starring in a [insert name of favorite beer] commercial – implies Army endorsement.

MISUSE OF POSITION: CONTRACTOR ISSUES

- It is a misuse of position to endorse non-Federal entities (NFEs), to include contractors.
5 C.F.R. 2635.701-702
 - An employee shall not use or permit the use of his Government position or title in any manner that could reasonably be construed to imply the agency sanctions or endorses the employee's personal activities or those of another.

See Enclosure 3, paragraph 11(b)(2).

MISUSE OF POSITION: CONTRACTOR ISSUES

- The Contracting Officer (CO) or the Contracting Officer's Representative (COR) may provide past performance feedback, positive or negative, to the contracting firm. The CO or COR may also provide feedback on past performance questionnaires.
- Bottom Line: It is the CO's or COR's (and not your) responsibility to monitor contractor employee performance, and award accordingly.

USE OF GOVERNMENT RESOURCES

- Use Federal Government equipment and property, including communications systems, only for official purposes or authorized purposes as approved by your supervisor.
- Subject to supervisor approval, you may use Government resources for personal purposes IF the use:
 - Does not adversely affect the performance of official duties;
 - Is of reasonable duration and frequency;
 - Serves a legitimate public interest (such as keeping the employee at their desk);
 - Does not reflect adversely on DoD; and
 - Creates minimal or no significant additional cost to DoD.

WARNING: You should also check other regulations or policies applicable to particular categories of resources (e.g. – JTR, IT regulations, etc.). Even though personal use may not violate the ethics rules, it may violate these.

USE OF GOVERNMENT RESOURCES: CONTRACTOR ISSUES

- Contractor employee time = government resource
- Contractor employees work on clock controlled by contractor supervisor – not gov't supervisor
- Leave and other time off controlled by contractor supervisor
- Holidays and other time off governed by contract, not gov't supervisor

Final Exam

Final Exam Q#1

NFE Scenario:

Ms. Smith DASA (Widgetry) (DASA(W)) is the vice-president of the American Society of Military Widgeteers (ASMW), an NFE. The ASMW offered her this position the day she was appointed DASA(W). The previous two DASA(W)s held this position before ASMW offered her this position.

Question:

May she accept this position without running afoul of ethics provisions?

Yes

No

Final Exam Q#1

Yes is incorrect.

It appears that ASMW offered Ms. Smith the vice-president position based on her official DASA(W) position. While DoD employees may voluntarily participate in NFE activities in their personal capacities, they may not serve in a personal capacity as an NFE officer or similar position offered because of the DoD position (DoD 5500.07-R, para. 3-301).

Final Exam Q#1

The correct answer is No.

It appears that ASMW offered Ms. Smith the vice-president position based on her official DASA(W) position. While DoD employees may voluntarily participate in NFE activities in their personal capacities, they may not serve in a personal capacity as an NFE officer or similar position offered because of the DoD position (DoD 5500.07-R, para. 3-301).

Final Exam Q#2

NFE Scenario:

COL Jones is the vice-president of the local chapter of the Association of the Army of the United States (AAUS), an NFE. The AAUS chapter is sponsoring a conference at the same installation where COL Jones works.

Question:

May COL Jones direct his Soldiers to set up for the local conference during the duty day?

Yes

No

Final Exam Q#2

Yes is incorrect.

DoD employees [to include Soldiers] “may not be used to support the unofficial activity of another DoD employee in support of non-Federal entities, nor for any other non-Federal purposes” (DoD 5500.07-R, para. 3-303b).

- NOTE: “Certain organizations have special relationships with DoD or its employees specifically recognized by law or by other directives” (DoD 5500.07-R, para. 3-212).

Final Exam Q#2

The correct answer is No.

Final Exam Q#3

NFE Scenario:

Mr. Davis is an Army employee and the vice president of the Society of American Military Widgeters (SAMW), an NFE, in his personal capacity. One of Mr. Davis's subordinates asks for his approval to attend a non-local SAMW conference as part of her official duties for the training benefit.

Question:

Assuming no legal issues with attending the conference, may Mr. Davis approve this request without running afoul of ethics provisions?

Yes

No

Final Exam Q#3

Yes is incorrect.

If an employee is serving in a personal capacity as an NFE officer or director, the employee may not participate personally and substantially in any particular government matter in which the NFE has a financial interest. This is a criminal statute. In this case, the SAMW will benefit financially from Mr. Davis's approval of this request. Mr. Davis should direct the employee to seek approval from another employee who is not an officer with this NFE.

Final Exam Q#3

The correct answer is No.

This is a criminal statute. In this case, the SAMW will benefit financially from Mr. Davis's approval of this request. Mr. Davis should direct the employee to seek approval from another employee who is not an officer with this NFE.

Final Exam Q#4

Political Activities Scenario:

An employee participating in an official online, on-camera office meeting from a telework location visibly drinks from a coffee mug advocating for passage of the Equal Rights Amendment.

Question:

Has the employee violated the Hatch Act or DoDD 1344.10?

Yes

No

Final Exam Q#4

Yes is incorrect.

Passage of an Equal Rights Amendment is an issue and not political activity, even if it may be associated with a particular political party. Advocating for issues does not violate the Hatch Act or DoDD 1344.10. While advocating for issues may create other personnel issues in the workplace, it does not create a Hatch Act/DoDD 1344.10 issue.

Final Exam Q#4

The correct answer is No.

Passage of an Equal Rights Amendment is an issue and not political activity, even if it may be associated with a particular political party. Advocating for issues does not violate the Hatch Act or DoDD 1344.10. While advocating for issues may create other personnel issues in the workplace, it does not create a Hatch Act/DoDD 1344.10 issue.

Final Exam Q#5

Political Activities Scenario:

LT White, off-duty and using her own iPhone, sent a link to a friend for a fundraising page for a political candidate.

Question:

Did LT White violate the Hatch Act/DoDD 1344.10?

Yes

No

Final Exam Q#5

No is incorrect.

Federal employees may not solicit, accept, or receive political contributions – 24/7.

They may not fundraise, even off-duty, and even using their own personal communications devices.

Final Exam Q#5

The correct answer is Yes.

They may not fundraise, even off-duty, and even using their own personal communications devices.

Final Exam Q#6

Gift Scenario: LTC Officer is in charge of an office with military and Federal civilian personnel ranging in grades from GS9 to GS13, and CPT to LTC.

LTC Officer wants to ask the most junior person in the office to solicit voluntary donations from office personnel to buy a $50 vase to give to their boss, Mr. Boss (SES), on his 50th birthday.

Question: Is LTC Officer's plan permissible under the "gifts between employees" rules?

Yes

No

Final Exam Q#6

Yes is incorrect.

General Rule: Employees shall not give or donate toward a gift for a superior, or solicit for such a donation (nor may the superior accept such a gift), unless an exception applies: 1) special infrequent occasion; or 2) occasional basis.

A birthday, even a milestone birthday, is not considered a “special infrequent occasion,” but falls under the “occasional basis” exception. In this case, an employee may give (and Mr. Boss may accept) an unsolicited birthday gift valued at $10 or less.

Final Exam Q#6

The correct response is No.

Final Exam Q#7

Gift Scenario: Prohibited Source Contractor, LLC (PSC) has generously treated the government Contracting Officer Representative (COR) to lunch twice during the calendar year (no other gifts during the year). It's now December, and the COR is enjoying a third lunch on PSC. When the bill arrives, the COR realizes that the cost of her lunch would result in $56 worth of lunches paid for by PSC during the calendar year.

Question: What should the COR do?

- A. Graciously thank PSC for their generosity.
- B. Pitch in $6 to stay within the $50 CY gift limit.
- C. Pay for her own lunch with her personal funds.

Final Exam Q#7

A is incorrect.

By exception, an employee may accept a gift from a prohibited source (like PSC, LLC) but only if the gift is valued at $20 or less, maximum $50 per calendar year / per source. “Paying down” to stay within the limit is prohibited.

Even if the COR could have accepted the lunch gift, she should first consider whether she should accept the gift, and whether a reasonable person with knowledge of the relevant facts would question her integrity or impartiality as a result of accepting the gift.

Final Exam Q#7

Question: Can you participate in discussions with the source selection team as long as you don't make the decision on who is awarded the contract?
